

We're looking for you

XXX (m/f) in XXX

What we have to offer:

- The opportunity to shape the core of our highly successful mobile apps. Millions of consumers will be using the features you develop!
- Professional and international colleagues who are passionate about improving the barcoo and Marktjagd experience
- A rather relaxed work environment where code quality and solid architecture come before rushed deadlines

Here at Offerista we're at work creating the shopping world of the future! Our shopping and product guides barcoo and Marktjagd have already been installed on 17 million smartphones, but we still have lots more to do. Our goal is to build the best shopping service and for that we're looking for you.
